"ICT Spring 2022 was again a great event to meet interesting people and companies, especially in the domains of data and AI, and an occasion for me to discover exciting trends in the domain of Space I am less familiar with. Talks were not only focused on the technologies but also on their impact and risks, by people having a significant experience in their fields, which made the talks very useful." Laurent Ach - CTO · Qwant

"Luxembourg is centrally positioned to elevate technology within Europe and perhaps the global arena. It was a pleasure to meet with the enterprises we did over the two days, to partake in the talks and interviews and it was reassuring to see ICT take such a strong position in this world of technology. I look forward to being invited back for next year's event and seeing this grow into a pivotal event in the tech world." Oliver Madden - Chrome Enterprise Browser Specialist EMEA, Google Chrome Enterprise
